THE AUTOMATIC VINDICATOR.

Help Want d advertisements were printed in THE WORLD in Nevember. They brought work to thousands. . . .

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORF, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1894.

EXTRA.

DIVVER FARCE GOES OVER.

For Lack of Witnesses the Trial Is Adjourned to Next Friday.

WITNESSES MAKE FUN OF HALE

A Second Recess Taken to Enthe Serving of

CROWD AT THE HEARING.

Ex-Surregate Rollins Promises to Produce Morris Tekulsky in Court.

The farcical trial of Police Justice Div-and at once Lawyer Hale arose.

TERENCE KENNY.

by John W. Goff.

LAWYER LEVY.

JUSTICE P. DIVVER.

TRIAL OF POLICE JUSTICE PATRICK DIVVER.

After Another.

First Menday in January.

His Bond Forfeited.

In Judge Martine's room, Part I. of police captains, sergeants and ward men but whose love for dress has gotten were in evidence. They were there to her into trouble, was before Referee was called. District-Attorney Fellows Mayer, counsel for Haas Bros., ladies asked that Schmittberger's trial be set tailors. for the first Monday in January. Mrs. Paifrey owes them for dresses Sergt. Taylor, who testified yesterday Lawyer Howe, who, with ex-Surrogate qurchased in 1893 a bill of $265. She gave that he gave the money collected from

EDWARD BURROUGHS. witnessed the Tekulaky-Divver "Sho Match.")

ROGER A. PRYOR.

H. W. BOOKSTAVER.

JUDGES WHO ARE TRYING P. DIVVER.

George W. Cregier, clerk of the Morriania Court, who testified on Monday, was recalled, and again questioned as to the days Divver attended that court, but nothing of consequence resulted.
Up to this time there was no sign of either Morris Tekulsky or Henry J. Campbell putting in an appearance. It looked as if the house of cards erected by Mr. Hale had fallen, and he made a pitifui plea to the Court for help.

"If this case is dismissed," he said, "ti will be the means of preventing further action on the part of the people, whom I represent" the part of the people. Now honestly, who do you represent the people. Now honestly, who do you represent."

"I say the people will be stuitlified," was the reply. "They will have no remedy if this case fails, and I ask the Court to protect the people—to take such at the prevent a miscarriage of justice."

"Is Mr. Tekulsky now in court?" asked Justice Daly, Tekuksy's name was called, and then Mr. Rollins said he would practically guarantee that Tekulsky would be in court in a few minutes.

"All right, then," replied Justice Daly, "I is now 2-60 o'clock, This Geurt will take a recess until 3 o clock, and do you. Mr. Hale, have your witness Campbell in Court at tha. Nour."

"I will chase him up at once." was the reply, and the prize have from the City of Churches rushed for the door.

"I looked as if the house of cards erected by the court of General Sessions some months be and to go for bridery and who got a mistrial. Was called. His case was put down to follow Schmittberger. The trai of Samuel Campbell on trial. Sergeant O'Toole was represented by Sergeant O'Toole was represented by Ex-Capt. Doherty's trial was set after O'Toole was represented by Ex-Capt. Doherty's trial was set after O'Toole's, and then ex-Sergt. Hugh train to protect the people. Now in the first Monday in February. First was the reply. "They will have no o'took, and the first Monday in February. First was the reply." They will have no o'took and the first Monday in February. First was the reply. "They wi

TERENCE KENNY.

(The disappearing witness)

Bartender Burroughs was then recalled and questioned, but nothing was brought ut. He had seen no fight, only a little "shoving match," just as friends ight do.

This exhausted all of Mr. Hale's witness. One of them he admitted was a man insane asylum. He asked for a componement in order to summon Teywork and others.

Ex-Surrogate Rollins protested against a adjournment He said that he had here in court three of the men for rham Hale claimed to be acting, and hat they knew nothing whatever of the harges. They had simply signed that they knew nothing whatever of the harges at Hale's request.

Hale, he said, had apparently made no reparation. It was simply a "dening sty," and he said the court ought not have convened "to satisfy this gentician a pleasure."

Lawyer Hale insisted that enough tea-

81,000 REWARD will be paid for information leading to arrest and conviction of the person or pornous responsible for a base runner regarding the subvency of the dry-most house of Egyn and Thay men, of Amelepting are, and that at Jonath Research Counselled at Jonath Research Counselled at Jonath Research Counselled at Jonath Research Counselled at Jonath Research

Date Set for Their Trials One Mrs. Mamie M. Palfrey Sued by Her Tailors.

Schmittberger Will Lead Off the She Disp'ays an As'onishing Lack of Memory.

x-Ward Man Smith Skips Out and Donles Ever Maving Given Har Husband Money.

Mrs. Mamie M. Palfrey, who is said to the Court of Sessions, this afternoon, be personally acquainted with society. have a day set for their trials.

Myer J. Stern this afternoon on an orAt 1.10 o'clock Capt. Schmittberger der granted by Judge Ehrlich to Maurice notes for them. Two of the notes have gone to protest, and she was brought up for the purpose of discovering called to the stand. He denied the state-whether or no she was gible to pay her ments made by the ex-Inspector to the of the Imperial Fire Lloyds' Insurance Mrs. Paifrey looked bright, but she in the Senate police investigation was was a very peculiar witness. She promised this morning, and there were actually did not konw how many rooms Forty-second street. She said her husband paid her board; that she did not which he so successfully began yester-

"No," she said, flinging her head back There were more rumors and reports as if she had been insuited.

"Have you within the past three years nesses than ever before, and while every given your husband $10,000?"

brought up Mrs. Paifrey acknowledged that she had given four notes to Hans Brothers for her indebtedness. "You have been sued upon three of the motes, haven't you?"

"Yess."

MISS MARY POTTER WEDS.

Married to William H. Hyde by Her Father, the Bishop.

Grace Church was this afternoon the Mecca of many prominent society peo-ple, eager to witness the wedding ceremony of Miss Mary Potter, daughter of Rt. Rev. Bishop Henry C. Potter, and William H. Hyde, a well-known artist.

The officiating clergyman was Bishop Potter himself, assisted by Rev. Dr. Huntington, the rector of the church. The service was the regulation Episcopal form, with ring.

There were lew floral decorations, these being confined to several large and beautiful bouquets, placed about the altar.

altar.

At the conclusion of the ceremony there was a reception at Bishop Potter's residence, 10 Washington square.

Charles Milliken, member of the Jersey City Fire Department, leaned over the fence of a yard on Prospect airest, that sity, to-day to be called upon to explain the teatimon look at a pour marked for sale. A victous mas—which has been given during the pas tiff dog aprang at him and fastened its fange in his check. His face was badly lacerated be fore the brute reseased its hold. It jumped at him a second time and buried its claws in his flesh. The wounds were cauterized at Christ's Hospital. The dog will be killed.

The first its control of the control of th

Giolitti, it is said, is Being Watched by the Police of Berlin.

ROME, Dec. 19.—La Nazione publishes a report that ex-Premier Giolitti, who is said to be in Berlin, has taken documents which he intends to use to discredit Premier Crispi with members of the Dreibund. In political circles, however, a revulsion of feeling in favor of Premier Crispi is becoming evident.

La Capitale asserts a warrant for the arrest of ex-Premier Giolitti will be issued, and learns that the police of Berlin have promised to watch Sig. Giolitti.

Smeke "Pregramme,"

the rev. Virginia Carrite to the corn in the further information that Inspector McAvoy had also been subpoenaed.

By veral newspaper men went over and chattel with Williams in the full uniform of his rank. He showed a subpoena to the doorkeeper. Officer Smith, who respectfully allowed his superior to pass.

The inspector snowed no signs of any tety or nervousness, but quietly went over into the corn's, and drawing out a lety or nervousness. But quietly went over into the corn's, and drawing out a feet or a revolution and began to read industriously.

Later it was learned that Inspector McAvoy had also been subpoenaed.

He had not appeared in the roem, however, up to a late hour.

Then came the further information that Inspector Alexander S. Williams in the full uniform of his rank. He showed a subpoena to the doorkeeper. Officer Smith, who respectfully allowed his superior to pass.

The inspector Alexander S. Williams in the full uniform of his rank. He showed a subpoena to the doorkeeper. Officer Smith, who respectfully allowed his superior to pass.

The inspector Alexander S. Williams in the full uniform of his rank. He showed a subpoena to the doorkeeper. Officer Smith, who respectfully allowed his superior to pass.

The inspector snowed no signs of any tety or into the corn's, and drawing out a lety or nervousness, but quietly went over into the corn's, and drawing out a lety or nervousness, but quietly went over into the corn's, and drawing out a lety or nervousness,

ALLAIRE ON THE STAND.

The Captain Tells About His Various Real Estate Investments.

STEERS WILLING TO TESTIFY.

Marrett Accuses Supt. Byrnes of Bulldozing Him --- Three Inspectors Subpænaed.

Lexow Didn't Know Williams.

Chairman Lexow came in just before

Police Capt. Allaire, who has been accused of receiving blackmail money, was placed on the witness stand before the Lexow Committee this afternoon.

He began his statement by saying he was made roundsman four days after Modelled After Connecticut's Automatic Gallows. Patent Applied for Ex-Inspector Steers, who has been ac cused of receiving blackmail money, appeared in the Lexow Committee's room this afternoon. He had not been sub poensed, but was willing, he said, to go

John Marrett, a former agent of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, testifled to-day that Supt. Byrnes had compelled him, by threats, to tell all he knew about the Gardner case.

Gardner, who was Superintendent of the Society, was accused and convicted of having extorted money from Lillie Clifton, for protection from arrest. Marrett said he had never complaine of the Superintendent because he feared he would be arrested on a manufactured charge, which, he said, was the case with Gardner.

Inspectors Williams, McAvoy and Mc Laughlin were subpoensed to testify to-day. Williams was the only one to appear and after a consultation he was excused for the day.

policemen to Inspector Steers, was reeffect that he made the allegations through spite.

Another day of sensational disclosure abundant indications that Mr. Goff inattend to any of that business.

She was asskd if at any time she gave her husband money to go into business.

day, implicating the higher-up officials of the Department, to a still more star-tling climax.

one was in the dark as to the exacplans of the counsel to the Committee, When the question of the notes was there was a general and confident ex-

ANTHONY J. ALLAIRE.

two days directly implicating them in Inspector Williams Appears.

The first incident of the day to at-tract attention was the arrival of In-

Williams Excused.

"In a moment," replied the chief counsel, and at the same time one of the attendants of the Committee went over and whishered to Inspector Williams He modded, and then picked up his overcost and hat, shook hands with severa of the captains seated about him and walked out of the room. It was understood that he was excused for the day at least.

at least.

Mr. Goff's moment was lengthened out to more than a quarter of an hour. He and Mr. Jerome had another confab with the Fenators, and the delay only served to rouse interest to a higher pitch. Father Ducey came in during the interval and took his accustomed lt was just noon when Mr. Goff

INSPECTOR WILLIAMS.

INSPECTOR WILLIAM W. M'LAUGHLIN.

Il o'clock and passed Inspector Williams without recognizing him. The latter, however, knew the little Chairman by sight, although he had never before attended a hearing of the Committee, and he put down his paper an eyed him curiously as he bustled about and finally took his seat on the bench with Senators Bradley and Robertson, who had already arrived.

Ex-Capt, Cross and Capt, Westervelt were in citizens dress. They greeted Inspector Williams effusively and Cross sat down and chatted gay's with his former superior. Not long afterwards Capt. Creeden, also in citizen's dress, wandered in and as he passed inspector Williams made a slight inclination of his head. The Inspector looked him full in the face with a steny glance and never moved a muscle. Capt. Creeden sat down in the row further on. Enter Capt. Strauss and His Wife. The next arrival of note was Capt. Strauss, who was put on the stand yesterday, but soon dismissed and told to be on hand this mirring with his wife. Mrs. Strauss, a stout woman with dark brown hair, wearing a broad brimmed feit hat surmounted with a bunch of nodding black plumes, accompanied her husband.

Goff and Fellows Consult. When Mr. Coff arrived Col. Fellows sought bim out, and they had a long whispered conversation, in which both showed great earnesiness by their man-ner and gestures. Assistant District-Attorney Lindsay opened the order of the day by calling Dr. Owen J. Ward, who was appointed last night to consult with Dr. Wright in regard to the condition of John J. Martin. Says Martin is a Very Sick Man. Says Martin is a Very Sick Man.

Dr. Ward said he had practised twenty-nine years, and was connected with Gouverneur Hospital as visiting surgeon. He had visited Martin, he said last evening, with Dr. Wright.

"I saw Martin in bed, and after a careful examination I found him completely paralyzed on the left side.

"He also seemed to be suffering from a species of anaesthesia of the brain, and could not codect his thoughts. I taiked with him for sometime and concluded that any Statements he might make would not be very reliable.

Q Did you feel cartain that he was not simplicating? A Yes, I am perfectly confident he was not it could not deceive me.

The witness said that while Martin's physical condition would not preclude an examination under oath, his mental condition was such that no reliance could be placed upon his statements. His memory was affected very seriously.

Dr. Ward said that the patent's keath

PRICE ONE CENT.

TWO OUTSIDERS WIN.

Lakeview and Ontario, with Johnson Up, Capture Events.

Sixteen Beckies Weigh in at the Drawing To-Day.

Weather, Track and Attendance Good at Alexander.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, ALEXANDER INTAND. Dec. 18.—The weather was fine, the track good, the crowd large and the betting lively at Alexander Island to-day. Not a suspicion of Winter has so far interfered with the racing, and as a result the patronage increases daily. Sixteen bookmakers weighed in, fields being large and well mate with but few scratches.

FIRST RACE.

Come Home, 110 (Murphy), 190-1 40-1 7 II

The start was prompt, the horses sent away in good shape. Lake cutsprinted the others from the winning easily by a length and a with Woodchopper second, a neck to several time. Servins.

DOMINION AT NEW ORLEANS At Good Odds Takes the First Ra

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS,
Dec. 19.—Splendid weather again greated
the large crowd attending the races have to-day. The going could not have been better, as the fast time made in the various events shows.

Imp. Pomegranate, 10t (Pennille) 4-1 f s sir John, 111 (A. Clayton)...13-teven 1 f Adah Foy, 18t (Bergen)....100-118-1

Eva L., Piea and Sir John were the first away, but Martha Griffin in the first furlong took the lead, followed by Piea. Eva L. and Dominion. Martha Griffin, Piea and Dominion were the leaders entering the stretch, but Dominion outran his field and won clevery by half a length from Piea. Who heat Lou Prewitt for the place. Time-1414-4 Second Race—Six furlongs.—Wen Herman. Bob Holman was second and Nicarague third.

RESULTS AT ROBY.

RACE TRACK, ROBY, Ind., DEC. 18.— The races on this track to-day resulted

First Race-Four and one-half fur-longs.—Won by Couronse d'Or, 1 to 1 and 4 to 5; La Grippe second, 2 to 1 place; My Hebe third. Time—0.55.

ALEXANDER ISLAND ENTRIES.

RACE TRACK, ALEXANDER IEL AND, Dec. B.—The entries and we for Thursday's races follow: 123 Guy Alf .... 129 Hert 129 Lellah .... 129 Lerry M. ...

Snocks 122 Guy Ali
Tube Rose 129 Bert
Laughing Water 129 Lallah
Pan King 129 Lairy K
Jim Corbett 127 Soprano II.

Becont Race—Selling: six and a half burion
Son Erreur 108 Srds
Porager 108 Srds
Prim 108 Mins Pulnifer B
John Rudden 108 Mins Pulnifer E
John Rudden 109 Bald Hornet
Jennis Bowman f 189
Third Race—Selling: mile and an eighth Conners 104 Thurston

Pitth Race Seiling; alk and a half fur

BOSTON BROKER ARRESTED.

Accused of Embessiing $4,800 from n Woman. BOSTON, Dec. 19.-Joseph D. Lowe, & BOSTON, Dec. 19.—Joseph D. Lowe, a broker, at 171 Tremont street, was arrested to-day charged with the embiestiement of $4.800 from Mrs. Amands A. McCleilan, of 4 Yarmouth street Mrs. McCleilan, alleges that abe piedged some stock with Lowe, receiving in payment $4.800, which she returned to him to invest for her.

She called that Lowe the street of the light payment as the directed, and that he lost the messey, lowe celeins the total the worker of the messey of the street of the street